Dear Sirs,

Park View Viaggi is a travel agency located in the heart of Venice.

Our professional staff is composed of venetian people who love and perfectly know this unique city in the world, in order to introduce you and your clients in a "venetian point of view". We always have the opportunity to be present and assist your clients in every moment of their stay in the city and the mainland.

Our tested experience and knowledge of the city will be at your disposal to select for you the best hotels and restaurants, always better than you can expect.

We can help them to choose all kind of services in Venice: city sightseeing, tickets for the main cultural expositions and concerts, suggestions for personal shopping. We can also issue train and flight tickets.

Don't forget that we can organize meeting and incentive also in private and exclusive houses and palaces, to give an unforgettable touch to your event.

We are also prepared to arrange the stay for your disabled clients, and let them discover properly our beautiful city.

We guarantee maximum professional service for all the excursions and visits in the mainland of Venice.

Don't hesitate to contact us to have more information about naturalistic, artistic or gourmet tours.
