DAILY DEPARTURE – 9:00 a.m.

PICK-UP DETAILS – please be in hotel lobby 30 minutes before tour

COST – Adults $59.00 • Children (ages 6 – 11) $29.50

*This special pricing is for Gray Line Tours guests only.

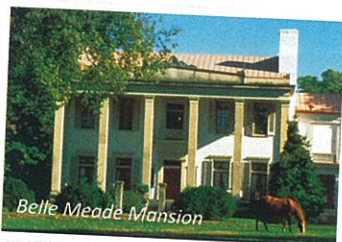

Take a journey back in time as you visit two of the most historic mansions in the Southeast – The Hermitage and Belle Meade Plantation.

Ride in comfort to The Hermitage, the home of President

Andrew Jackson. Preservationists continue to use a number of scientific techniques to preserve, restore and repair the mansion and other buildings on this 1,050-acre cotton plantation. Historians consider this the best-preserved early U.S. presidential home, and it is ready for you to explore just as it would have been in 1836.

Next, on rolling land that, in the 1800's, made up an estate of more than 2,500 acres in size, you will find Belle Meade Plantation. Once a world-renowned thoroughbred farm, the mansion is a beautiful example of Greek-Revival

Antebellum architecture. Enjoy a narrated tour through the mansion by a guide in period clothing, and explore other buildings on the grounds, on your own. Complete the tour and the day with a wine tasting at The Winery at Belle Meade. Lunch is on your own at Hermitage House Smorgasbord. A full Southern-style buffet, including dessert, beverage and tax. The cost is $10 for adults, $6.50 for children (6 – 11) and $3.50 for children (1 – 5). This special pricing is for Gray Line Tours guests only.

FRANKLIN'S CIVIL WAR: A LEGACY OF HEROES

DURATION – approximately 7 hours

WEDNESDAY DEPARTURE ONLY – 9:00 a.m.

PICK-UP DETAILS – please be in hotel lobby 30 minutes before tour

COST – Adults $59.00 • Children (ages 6 – 11) $29.50

Explore the historic city of Franklin – the site of five of the bloodiest hours of the Civil War. Franklin's idyllic downtown square of today hearkens back to a time before the harrowing fight between the Union and Confederate armies. Hearing the unique stories of heroism at the Carter House, Lotz House and Carnton Plantation, you'll soon appreciate the efforts of everyone who lived here in 1864, elite society or immigrant

Understand the challenge of what it took to survive the fighting, bury the 9,500 dead, and reconstruct citizens' homes and some semblance of their lives before Battle of Franklin.

See the bullet-riddled walls and blood-stained floors of mansions-turned-field hospitals. Then, when you break for lunch on your own, what you have learned from your passionate tour guides will give you a better appreciate for what happened here 150 years ago.

NOTE: Lunch will be on your own in Historic Downtown Franklin.

Think you've got what it takes to be a Nashvillian? Find out on this unique tour that lets you shop and eat where the locals do – and we mean the famous ones.

See where country-music phenom

Taylor Swift takes her noteworthy

boyfriends for mouth-watering barbecue. Browse the shop that attracts a wide variety of visiting celebrities, from Gwyneth Paltrow to ZZ Top's Billy Gibbons. Experience a one-of-a-kind boutique that offers great vintage finds, such as glittering suits by the Nashville "fashion artist," Manuel, and spangled gowns by Nudie's of Hollywood. Cool off like Nashvillians-in-the-know do – at the gourmet Popsicle shop that serves Mexican-style frozen treats in unusual and spectacular taste combinations. And, for those in need of a caffeine fix, check out where the music executives grab a cup of joe, and stop by the favorite coffee shop of singer songwriter-musician Jack White.

By the end of this tour, you'll know if the life of Nashville's movers and shakers could also be the life for you.

PICK-UP DETAILS – please be in hotel lobby 30 minutes before tour

COST – Adults $45.00 • Children (ages 6 – 11) $22.50

Prepare to experience the city behind ABC's hit TV drama Nashville, and explore real-life filming locations featured in the show with Gray Line of Tennessee.

Visit the homes of Rayna, Deacon, Scarlett and Lamar. Get your photo taken on the world-famous Ryman Auditorium stage where Rayna and Juliette performed their duet, "Wrong Song."

Go inside the actual Bluebird Café to find out why playing at this classic venue is a songwriter's dream gig. Learn which famous artists got their start in this spot and why the lines to get in the door are always so long.

Visit many other filming locations in and around the city, and discover the insider information that brings ABC's Nashville alive for its biggest fans.

NASHVILLE NIGHTS & LIGHTS

DURATION – approximately 5 hours

DAILY DEPARTURE – 6:00 p.m.

PICK-UP DETAILS – please be in hotel lobby 30 minutes before tour

COST – Adults $45.00 • Children (ages 6 – 11) $22.50

Experience a night to remember in Music City.

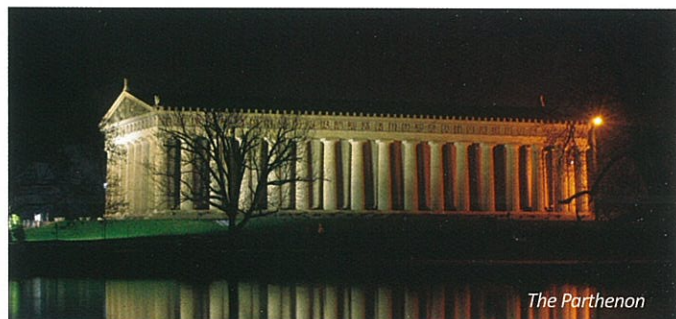

Start the night off right with a down-home, tasty barbecue dinner at a locally owned eatery. Following dinner, enjoy a drive-by tour of Nashville's major attractions, including the Parthenon, the Ryman Auditorium, the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, Riverfront Park, Bicentennial Park (including a breathtaking view of the Tennessee State Capitol building), Music Row, Schermerhorn Symphony Center and much more.

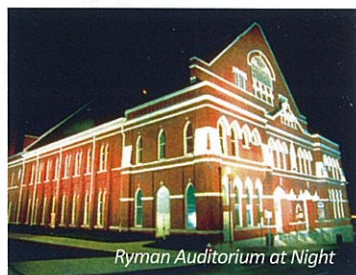

Nashville Skyline at Night

After your city tour, set off to enjoy some time at your leisure in the downtown area, where you can listen to all kinds of live music and visit the world-famous honky-tonk bars. Live it up without worry, as a professional Gray Line driver will be on stand-by to give you a safe ride home at the end of the night.

NOTE: Children not allowed in Honky Tonks after 6:00 p.m.

COST – call for rates and reservations

See the Grand Ole Opry your way – contact us for tickets and transportation or transportation only.

This is the show that made country music famous. “Born” in 1925, it’s the longest-running live radio program in history. Each program showcases the best of the past, present and future of country music.

See the reverence every artist has as they take the stage at the Grand Ole Opry and step on the six-foot, oak-wood circle placed within it from the stage of the Ryman Auditorium – the Opry’s previous home and “Mother Church of Country Music.” This circle reminds everyone that they’re a part of something larger than themselves and that they will now be forever tied to the legends who have stood there before them.

Featuring artists from multiple generations of country-music fame at each show, there’s simply nothing like the Grand Ole Opry. It’s a must-see event for anyone visiting Nashville.

NOTE: November – January shows are performed at the Ryman Auditorium and venue is subject to change.

PICK-UP DETAILS – please be in hotel lobby 30 minutes before departure

COST – Adults $92.00 • Children (ages 4 – 11) $82.00

Enjoy a cruise down the Cumberland River on one of the largest paddlewheel riverboats in the country. Choose from either the lunch or dinner cruise.

The All Aboard Lunch Cruise offers a family-style meal as you enjoy the rousing, country-comedy variety show, "Steve Hall and Shotgun Red."

The spectacular Dinner Cruise features dinner in the beautiful Victorian Dinner Theatre and the new musical experience, Heart of Tennessee: A Musical Road Trip – a show that takes you on a fun-packed and powerful journey down the Musical Highway, featuring music "born" in Tennessee. Catch everything from bluegrass to soul, a little gospel and, of course, country music.

**Subject to availability. Call for schedule. Food, entertainment and departure location subject to change without notice. The General Jackson Showboat is owned and operated by Gaylord Entertainment.*

FUN FACT

- The General Jackson Showboat is named for the first steamboat to operate on the Cumberland River in 1817, which was named for General Andrew Jackson.

TRIBUTE TO THE KING

DURATION – approximately 3 hours (March - November)

EVENING DEPARTURES – Mon. and Thurs. Opryland Area 6:00p.m. • other areas 5:30 p.m.

PICK-UP DETAILS – please be in hotel lobby 30 minutes before tour

COST – Adults $30.00 • Children (ages 6 – 11) $20.00

You'll have to blink twice when watching "A Tribute to the King: Thru the Years, 1953 – 1977," because with a performance this authentic, it's suddenly very hard to believe that the King isn't really in the building.

This high-energy, musical biography of Elvis Presley is a feast for the eyes and ears. It includes five costume changes and more than 30 of Elvis' most beloved songs recorded throughout his career. Audiences of all ages have given this production standing ovations, and you'll see why. It's almost impossible to stay seated.

FUN FACT

- It's believed that Hatch Show Print – the 134-year-old letterpress print shop in Nashville – made Elvis' first promotional poster in 1956.
